

e-Learning Overview

With extensive expertise across the UK and the US, we offer specialised FCA, SEC and NFA e-Learning compliance training courses, which have been designed to be as straightforward and interactive as possible.

The courses have been written by our senior compliance consultants based on their wealth of experience in creating and delivering highly customised compliance training courses to financial investment firms, covering a number of governance, compliance and financial crime topics.

Benefits

- Immediate access to the courses upon purchase via our web or app platforms
- Courses can be completed either online or offline, in multiple sittings by simply logging back onto the course and starting again from where you left off
- Courses are delivered through fully automated and interactive online visual solutions - headphones and speakers are not required for completion
- Courses range from 30 to 45 minutes in duration and end with a short multiple-choice test
- Pay per course from only £20/course (excl VAT) or subscribe to our full library of courses from only £6/month per learner
- On the successful completion of each course, a certificate is available to download for your records
- UK courses are fully CPD-accredited

Visit the e-Learning section of our website to find out more at: www.rqcgroup.com/e-learning

