

A woman with blonde hair and glasses, wearing a light-colored blazer, is sitting at a desk and working on a laptop. The background is a blurred office setting with a plant and a bookshelf.

e-Learning Overview

With extensive expertise across the US and the UK, we offer specialised SEC, NFA and FCA e-Learning compliance training courses, which have been designed to be as straightforward and interactive as possible.

The courses have been written by our senior compliance consultants based on their wealth of experience in creating and delivering highly customised compliance training courses to financial investment firms, covering a number of governance, compliance and financial crime topics.

Benefits

- Immediate access to the courses upon purchase via our web or app platforms
- Courses can be completed either online or offline, in multiple sittings by simply logging back onto the course and starting again from where you left off
- Courses are delivered through fully automated and interactive online visual solutions - headphones and speakers are not required for completion
- Courses range from 30 to 45 minutes in duration and end with a short multiple-choice test
- Courses cost as little as $30 per learner
- On the successful completion of each course, a certificate is available to download for your records
